

ALEXANDRIA.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 4.

A dispatch from Richmond, dated on Saturday, says: "The bail bond of Mr. Davis was renewed to-day, the accused to appear on Sunday during next term as the court may fix. The Judge said Chief Justice Chase told him he would be in Richmond to preside at the trial within two days after the close of impeachment." The new bond given has Horace Greeley, Cornelius Vanderbilt, and Gerrit Smith on it, for twenty-five thousand dollars each, and the remaining twenty-five thousand dollars is given by citizens of Richmond. This was done by instructions from the parties named. Ex-Senator Bright, of Indiana, was in court, and Gen. Lee and Mr. Seddon were in the city as witnesses. It is thought the trial will take place in the last of May.

In the impeachment case the closing argument on the part of the Managers, by Mr. Bingham, was commenced to-day. It is understood he will occupy two days. The case may be given to the Senate by Wednesday. The first business will be the disposition of the various orders regulating the final proceedings, which have been offered during the trial and postponed until after the close of the arguments. It is thought the Senate may spend a day in the settlement of these preliminary questions. Then will come the discussion, probably in secret session, on the evidence and points of law involved in the trial. Upon the latitude given to the debate in this consultation will depend the date of the completion of the trial.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, describing recent visit to the freedmen on the estate at Arlington, in Virginia, says: "In this freedmen's settlement there are two hundred and thirty-six tenements, giving lodging to two thousand dependents, besides the hospital inmates. The expenses of the settlement everything included, are $9,000 a month. Six hundred acres of the best land of the Arlington estate has been surveyed and staked into lots of an acre apiece, which are let out to the contractors at $3 a year per acre. A negro ration cost $9.50 a month, the same with a soldier's. The settlement at Arlington casts a large vote at all elections in the county of Alexandria."

The Richmond Enquirer says: "The untoward results in the States to the South, in the late so-called elections, have added to the previous political gloom, and made more imminent the peril that confronts us. Under ordinary circumstances these disasters might naturally enfeeble our efforts by discouraging our hopes. Under the actual circumstances, they must but arouse our energies." This is the proper feeling and the proper spirit. Let us all strive earnestly, and together, if possible to save Virginia. The "proposed Constitution" for her, is worse than those adopted in the other Southern States.

We published on Saturday an account of a speech—a kind of official exposition—made to some colored people in Richmond by Gen. Whitteley, a Bureau man. It must have been read with surprise by every right thinking man if, indeed, people, in these days, can be surprised at anything. The Richmond Whig calls it an incendiary harangue and calls the attention of Gen. Schofield to this new effort in behalf of Africanization.

According to the latest reliable information from Bremen, over 8,000 persons left that port alone during the week preceding Easter, for the United States, in four steamers and seventeen sailing-vessels, and the steamer accommodations of the steamers have been secured in anticipation already up to the end of June next.

All accounts concur in representing that Tennessee, as "reconstructed," under the rule of Brownlow and his satellites, is the worst government, and the most disturbed and unsettled of any of the Southern or Southwestern States. The example is not calculated to induce people in the South to desire any such "Reconstruction."

Among the members elect to the Senate of North Carolina is Bedford Brown. Living in the county of Caswell, where he was born, and where there is a colored majority of seven hundred, himself in former years a large slave-owner, he received a large number of the votes of the colored people.

A newspaper in New Mexico having made a violently abusive attack upon Judge Perry E. Brochus, the members of the bar of Santa Fe have all signed a paper vindicating the character and official course of Judge B., and declaring the attack upon him unwarrantable and unjust.

In North Carolina and Georgia, where the Conservatives made a hard contest, in behalf of their rights, the Radicals, with the aid of the colored people have secured the entire control of both States, electing all the State officers, and adopting the Radical constitutions.

Mr. Stanton has moved from the War Department to his own house again, having become satisfied that all danger of his being ejected is over.

We have a horrible story, referred to in the New Orleans Commercial Bulletin, and given in detail, as a rumor, in a Mississippi paper, relative to a reported outrage, by a colored soldier, of a daughter of a high Federal officer at Ship Island, of the seizure of the black man, of the killing of him, tying his body in a sack, and throwing him into the Gulf, &c., &c. The whole is so indefinite, and so improbable, that this allusion, at present, to the tale, will be sufficient.

The Illinois papers do not speak kindly of Senator Yates' confession. The Chicago Tribune (Republican) charges that he is a great vicious and debasing habit which he ought to reform, and adds that it would be in better taste to reform once without issuing a proclamation, than to be continually issuing proclamations and never reforming. The Chicago Times (Democratic) is also very bitter upon Mr. Yates and his habits and his pities.

Hannett declares that his Radicalism cannot be shaken, but at the same time he warns the conspirators that if they defeat him, they will find their own inevitable "defeat, if not their political destruction."

Mr. Isaac Barton, of Philadelphia, who recently died, left by his will, bequests, amounting in all to $66,000, to various charitable literary, and scientific institutions, in Philadelphia.

D. H. Harmon, who reported that he was robbed in Wytheville, a short time since, attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself, in Tazewell county, last week.

The Virginia Conservative Convention is to meet in Richmond, on Thursday, the 7th inst.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

The Democratic Legislature of Ohio have resolved to remain in session until the impeachment trial is ended, in order that they may fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Wade's promotion. The Columbus Journal states positively that Hugh J. Jewett, member of the House from Muskingum county, will be chosen Senator.

Judge Black has written another letter, to President Johnson relative to the Alta Vela affair. In it he says that he knew nothing of the letter signed by certain Republican members of the House of Representatives, including Messrs. Logan and Butler, counselling the President in relation to the affair.

Information has reached the Radical Congressional Committee from New Orleans that the Democrats have one majority certain in the State Senate of Louisiana which will prevent the adoption of the amendments to the Constitution, and thus delay the admission of Louisiana.

A few radical members of the House who have been reflecting upon the disgraceful personal debate in that body on Saturday between Messrs. Donnelly and Washburne have resolved that resolutions of censure shall be offered as to both the offending members.

U. S. officers have succeeded in arresting three notorious counterfeiters, whose headquarters are at Newton, N. J. They are also believed to be the ringleaders of a gang of ruffians who have robbed and burned several stores in Sussex and Warren counties.

Richard B. Lloyd, Jr., was before Justice Dowling, of New York, on Wednesday, charged with drawing a pistol upon Gen. Roger A. Pryor, in the office of the latter. The accused was locked up in default of bail. Mr. P. was formerly of Virginia.

At a colored picnic at McGee Station, near Memphis, on Saturday, a row occurred, in which one woman and six men were shot—one fatally. In attempting to quell the disturbance a policeman was badly beaten.

Mr. John Brooks, a well-known bird and snake fancier, in Baltimore, last week, whilst playing with a pet rattlesnake, was bitten by the reptile, and died within 15 minutes.

We learn from Atlanta, Ga., that Mr. Jas. O. Harris, formerly Sheriff of Culpeper county, has been elected High Sheriff for that city and county.

Gen. Grant has gone to Philadelphia on a brief visit.

A SCENE.

In the House of Representatives, on Saturday, one of those almost always disgraceful episodes called a "personal explanation" occurred, and was more than usually productive of personalities and scurrilities. A difficulty some time ago arose during debate between Mr. E. B. Washburne, of Illinois, and Mr. I. Donnelly, of Minnesota. The former has, pursuing the matter out of the House, written a letter, speaking of his opponent in the very harshest terms. This letter was made the subject of explanation by Mr. Donnelly on Saturday, and for more than an hour he was allowed to air his grievances and retaliate with hard words. This, it must be confessed, he did in a very effective manner, displaying an epithetical and vituperative ability which it would be hard to excel. Mr. Washburne replied in briefer terms, but in the same spirit. The Speaker did his best to put an end to the disputable squabble, but was not supported by the members who seemed to enjoy the disgraceful scene. Baltimore American.

The following is a "specimen" of this affair: "Mr. Donnelly said: 'If there be in our midst one low, sordid, vulgar soul, one baron of mediocre intelligence, one heart callous to every kindly sentiment, and to every generous emotion, one tongue leprous with slander, one mouth which is like unto a den of foul beasts giving forth deadly odors, if there be here one character which, while bloated and spotted, yet raves, and rants and blackguards like a prostitute, if there be here one bold, bad, empty, bellowing demagogue, it is the gentleman from Illinois.'"

Mr. Washburne said: "If I were called upon to make a personal explanation, I should make it with a member who is not covered over with crime and infamy; whose record is stained with every fraud—whiskey and other frauds—with a man who has not proved false alikes to his friends, his country, his constituents, his politics, his religion and his God."

We presume this will suffice for even the most "specious" gentleman extant.

The National Intelligence says: "The personal controversy between Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, and Mr. Donnelly, of Minnesota—both types of the extreme Radicalism, and each the particular friend of General Grant—who occupied the session of the House on Saturday evening, is one of the most shocking exhibitions and disgraceful scenes which was ever witnessed in that chamber. If anything was wanting to illustrate what sort of Representatives and what manner of men the existing revolution has thrown up to the surface, it would be found in this passage between two prominent members of the dominant party."

"UNDER WHICH KING?"—Quite a lively fight appears to be going on in the State of Virginia between the friends of Gen. Wells and Hawkhurst, for the nomination of the party for Governor in the next canvass.

Wells's negro suffrage letter is read at every meeting, and it is claimed for him that he was the pioneer of the negro suffrage scheme in the State and in the South. Hawkhurst's record is also reproduced, and his friends say that he alone is to be trusted. Hannett is never spoken of, notwithstanding he declares himself a candidate, urges the nominating convention to put him forward, and warns everybody that there is great danger of a split in the party. Richmond Enquirer.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

The Piedmont Land Agency of Virginia has sold the estate of F. F. Glasgow, located within two and a-half miles of Salem, Roanoke county, Va., to Mr. Lamar, of Maryland. The place contains 1,036 acres, 100 acres of which are Roanoke river bottoms, and has upon it superior improvements. Price $26,000. The farm of N. V. Godby, located on New river, in Pulaski county, 307 acres, for $2,700, and a house and lot in the city of Lynchburg, to Capt. De Norlandor, formerly of Austria.

General Schofield made several municipal appointments in Richmond on Saturday. Among them Wm. R. Tall, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Convention; High Constable, Dr. Chas. S. Mills, a prominent citizen, City Surgeon; N. Sweetman, who aided officers to escape from prison during the war, Inspector of Gas; and a negro named John Oliver, Messenger of the City Council.

Large numbers of persons from the Northern and Southern States are coming into the Valley of Virginia seeking homes, and they are the best people of both sections. On yesterday, Messrs. Echols & Co., of Stanton, sold to Mr. Williams, of Florida, the Opie farm near that place, containing a fine residence and 125 acres, for $13,000.

The Staunton Vindicator says: "We learn that the caterpillars showing itself to a considerable extent in many orchards in the county. An experienced nurseryman requests us to call the attention of farmers to the fact that the present is the best time to deal with these pests."

The Leesburg Washingtonian says: "We regret to hear of the death of two estimable citizens of Loudoun during the present week. Mr. Wm. F. Adam, of Aldie, and Dr. Tazewell Luckett, residing near Union. Both were interred, on Thursday last, at Middleburg."

The investigation into the case of the Commonwealth vs. J. Woods Garth for the killing of Lieut. Updyke, at Charlottesville, has closed and the prisoner being discharged, the decision of the magistrates being, that it was justifiable homicide.

Mr. Allan, of Prince Edward, will be a candidate for the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth, before the Legislature that is expected to assemble. If successful, he will supplant a Virginia gentleman, John M. Herndon.

General Robert E. Lee, accompanied by ex-Governor Letcher, arrived in Richmond last Friday. They both came at the summons of the Federal court, as witnesses in the case of ex-President Davis.

Canada, the colored delegate from Halifax, has come to Richmond for one of "his constituents," "because he couldn't" redress the negroes on Saturday at Halifax Courthouse without one.

Bayne, having been hoisted out of the Suffolk Congressional Convention, has called upon the Mayor of Norfolk for protection. He is violent against the white carpet-baggers. Hannett's paper "ventures the prediction that no Radicals in Virginia can be run for any office by the Radical party who can gain one hundred Conservative votes in the State."

The family of Governor Wells have arrived in Richmond and taken up their residence in the gubernatorial mansion. The County Court of Fluvanna on Monday last, determined to subscribe for $50,000 of the stock of the C. & O. R. R. Co.

Conservative Meeting at Fairfax C. H.

Pursuant to a call of the County Superintendent a meeting was held at Fairfax C. H., on Saturday, the 2nd of May, which was organized by calling Thomas R. Love to the Chair, and appointing John B. Newcomb Secretary.

On motion the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to represent the county in the Convention called at Leesburg, on the 11th instant, to nominate candidates for the State Senate for the district of Loudoun, Fairfax and Alexandria:

First District—R. H. Cocke, Metrahl Makeley.

Second District—John A. Marshall, Philip Gooding.

Third District—Richard L. Nevitt, George Johnston.

Fourth District—H. P. Burroughs, Cassius F. Lee.

Fifth District—Abram Lydecker, Thomas Moore.

Sixth District—S. T. Stuart, Thomas E. Carper.

On motion Cassius F. Lee and Thomas R. Love were appointed delegates to the State Convention, to assemble in Richmond on the 7th instant.

It was resolved that the delegates be earnestly requested to attend the several Conventions to which they have been appointed.

THOS. R. LOVE, Chairman.

JOHN B. NEWCOMB, Secretary.

FAUQUIER COUNTY.—We have heard of nothing determinate with regard to removals or appointments to office in Fauquier, beyond the fact that our County Clerk has been directed by Lieut. Vinal, Military Commissioner of this district, to furnish him with a list of county officers, with the dates of the expiration of their terms and the fact stated whether or not they have registered. This we presume is a step preliminary.

Lieut. Havens, Agent of the Freedmen's Bureau for this county, has resigned his commission and left our town for the purpose of joining his family in their Northern home. He was a reserved and temperate person, and never obtruded his views on any subject upon citizens of this community. Capt. Smith, late Bureau officer at Leesburg, has succeeded him.

Messrs. T. Turner, B. H. Shackelford, John Leary and Gov. Smith, addressed the citizens at the Court-house, last Monday, on the issues of the day, and the importance of registering and rejecting the proposed Constitution. Warrenton Index.

U. S. TROOPS IN VIRGINIA.

There are now stationed in Virginia about two thousand troops. These are distributed as follows:

Richmond.—Camp Grant, six companies of infantry, one company of cavalry; Liberty Prison, one battery of artillery; Camp Williams, one battery of artillery; Fredericksburg, one company of infantry; Yorktown, one company of infantry; Norfolk, one company of infantry; Camp Hamilton, near Fortress Monroe, one company of infantry; Petersburg, four companies of infantry; Farmville, one company of infantry; Lynchburg—Camp Schofield, four companies of infantry; Marion, Smyth county, one company of infantry; Winchester, one company of infantry; Alexandria, one company, Warrenton, one company. Total—Infantry, twenty-three companies; artillery, two batteries; cavalry, one company.—Richmond Dispatch.

THE FUTURE OF VIRGINIA.

The Baltimore Sun says that the Mother of Commonwealths, old Virginia, great yet in her adversity, is to recuperate, rise up and prosper in the future, there is no doubt. Her natural advantages are immense; in climate, location and resources she is not excelled. Her products are varied and her lands attractive. Emigration is going into her borders, not only from the North, from Pennsylvania especially, as we have noted heretofore, but also from the South.

Foreign News.

The crisis in the British Cabinet, caused by the Irish Church question, monopolizes attention abroad. Mr. D'Israeli, the Premier, is reported to have tendered his resignation on Saturday, but it was not accepted. Mr. Gladstone will move to take up his resolutions to-day in the House of Commons. If they are carried it is thought that an address to the Queen will follow.

INTEREST ON THE PUBLIC DEBT.—Last week about $24,000,000 in coin was checked from the Treasury Department to pay the semi-annual interest on the five-twenty bond, which falls due upon the first of May and first of November. This reduces the amount of coin on hand to something over sixty millions of dollars, consequently the statement of the public debt for this month, to be issued about the first of June, will show a large increase in the same. No more coin will be required for the payment of interest until the 1st of July, when $27,000,000 will be used for the payment of the semi-annual interest on the five-twenty bonds and bonds of 1881, which falls due upon the 1st of July and 1st of January. The total amount of July required to pay the interest on the public debt annually is about $113,000,000, $54,000,000 of which is paid on the 1st of January and 1st of July, $48,000,000 on the 1st of May and 1st of November, and $9,000,000 on the tenority bonds due on the 1st of March and 1st of September.—Washington Star.

DEATH OF AN OLD BANKING OFFICER.

Thomas Mitchell, well known in Lynchburg many years ago, died in Danville, Kentucky, a few days since. His business education was obtained under the care of the father of the Hon. Wm. C. Rives. Here he acquired his habits of punctuality and accuracy and fidelity to trusts, which gave him an honorable distinction through a long and blameless life as a man of business. Mr. Nicholas Biddle is said to have pronounced Mr. Mitchell to be the best clerk in the employment of the bank and its many branches. In the year 1837 he became cashier of the Branch of the Bank of Kentucky, at Danville, and held the office with credit and honor to himself and with great advantage to the bank until the branch at Danville was closed. When he laid down his office he accounted for every cent of the millions of dollars that had passed through his hands, leaving himself a debtor to no man.
